Approved For Release 2002/05/07 : CIA-RDP62-00631R000300180028-1196

25X1A

25X1B

33 Y 開稿 147

	SECRET Oroj. Chi
MEMORANDUM FOR:	Chief	25X1B
SUBJECT:	Contract Program for Special Project under the Jurisdiction of	25X1B
of this office	ons between representatives of your office and, the following outline for the handling of subject r your review and approval:
a. Assumptions -	This program is instituted under the following	İ
plish, largely on the to the exploitation hours per day or dentail. According	utilized hereunder will be expected to accom- heir own initiative, specified objectives relating of material without regard to the number of ays per week completion of the assignment may by, their legal relationship to the Government adependent contractor.
(2) This progra	am will be undertaken on an overt basis supported	25X1B
	nsation for personal services rendered under the id by Government check.
	es with respect to this program shall be performed ontinental limits of the United States.
shall be for the original and one copy fee to be paid the indito the Special Contrac	representative to remit to Headquarters the of Form 57 and a suggestion as to the maximum vidual will forward the copy of the Form 57 ting Officer with a covering memorandum indicating timum fee, the general nature of services to be	25X1B

Approved For Release 2002/05/07 : CIA-RDP62-00631R000300180028-1

SECRET

25X1B

25X1B

25X1B

shall be approved by a designated representative of who shall also certify as to the availability of funds. The Special Contracting Officer's approval shall be indicated to on a return copy of nemorandum. 25X1B After security and other processing requirements are satisfied, this return copy shall constitute the basis for the field representative to obtain the individual's signature on the standard contract on behalf of the official cover facility. If requested, the field representative may give the individual a copy of the contract. The field representative will retain one signed copy in his file and remit the signed original to Headquarters. One of the purposes to be served by the field's retention of a completed contract is the availability of a valid contract which does not contain on its face the internal approval prescribed below. The approving officer shall, on the face of the contract, indicate his approval and forward the original and two copies to the Special Contracting Officer for validation. The Special Contracting Officer shall remit the original and one copy to Vouchered Payroll which will serve as the final repository.  c. Termination, Expiration or Renewal of Contract - The Special Contracting Officer shall be notified by the approving officer when any of the aforementioned contracts are terminated or expire. In the absence of such notification the Special Contracting Officer shall assume in accordance with the seventh paragraph of the standard contract that the contract has been automatically renewed. In the event termination of the contract is unique in any respect, shall notify the Special Contracting Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.	performed and a request that the Special Contracting Officer approve the certify as to the availability of funds. The Special Contracting Officer's approval shall be indicated to on a return copy of nemorandum. 25X1B After security and other processing requirements are estisfied, this return copy shall constitute the basis for the field representative to obtain the individual's signature on the standard contract on behalf of the official cover facility. If requested, the field representative will retain one signed copy in his file and remit the signed original to Headquarters. One of the purposes to be served by the field's retention of a completed contract is the availability of a valid contract which does not contain on its face the internal approval prescribed below. The approving officer shall, on the face of the contract, indicate his approval and forward the original and two copies to the Special Contracting Officer for validation. The Special Contracting Officer shall remit the original and one copy to Vouchered Payroll which will serve as the final repository.  c. Termination, Expiration or Renewal of Contract - The Special Contracting Officer shall be notified by the approving officer when any of the aforementioned contracts are terminated or expire. In the absence of such notification the Special Contracting Officer shall assume in accordance with the seventh paragraph of the standard contract that the contract has been automatically renewed. In the event termination of the contract is unique in any respect, shall notify the Special Contracting Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.	engagement of the individual under the standard contract. This memorandum	-
After security and other processing requirements are satisfied, this return copy shall constitute the basis for the field representative to obtain the individual's signature on the standard contract on behalf of the official cover facility. If requested, the field representative may give the individual a copy of the contract. The field representative will retain one signed copy in his file and remit the signed original to Headquarters. One of the purposes to be served by the field's retention of a completed contract is the availability of a valid contract which does not contain on its face the internal approval prescribed below. The approving officer shall, on the face of the contract, indicate his approval and forward the original and two copies to the Special Contracting Officer for validation. The Special Contracting Officer shall remit the original and one copy to Vouchered Payroll which will serve as the final repository.  c. Termination, Expiration or Renewal of Contract - The Special Contracting Officer shall be notified by the approving officer when 25X1B any of the aforementioned contracts are terminated or expire. In the absence of such notification the Special Contracting Officer shall assume in accordance with the seventh paragraph of the standard contract that the contract has been automatically renewed. In the event termination of the contract is unique in any respect, shall notify the Special Contracting Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.	which we will be a second and a second a second and a second a second and a second	25X1B
After security and other processing requirements are satisfied, this return copy shall constitute the basis for the	certify as to the availability of funds. The Special Contracting Officer's
After security and other processing requirements are satisfied, this return copy shall constitute the basis for the	approval shall be indicated to on a return copy of memorandum.	25X1B
the individual's signature on the standard contract on behalf of the official cover facility. If requested, the field representative may give the individual a copy of the contract. The field representative will retain one signed copy in his file and remit the signed original to cover facility. If requested, the field representative may give the individual a copy of the contract. The field representative will retain one signed copy in his file and remit the signed original to	copy shall constitute the basis for the field representative to obtain	25X1B
cover facility. If requested, the field representative may give the individual a copy of the contract. The field representative will retain one signed copy in his file and remit the signed original to	the individual's signature on the standard contract on behalf of the official
a copy of the contract. The field representative will retain one signed copy in his file and remit the signed original to Headquarters. One of the purposes to be served by the field's retention of a completed contract is the availability of a valid contract which does not contain on its face the internal approval prescribed below. The spproving officer shall, on the face of the contract, indicate his approval and forward the original and two copies to the Special Contracting Officer for validation. The Special Contracting Officer shall remit the original and one copy to Vouchered Payroll which will serve as the final repository.  c. Termination, Expiration or Renewal of Contract - The Special Contracting Officer shall be notified by the approving officer when any of the aforementioned contracts are terminated or expire. In the absence of such notification the Special Contracting Officer shall assume in accordance with the seventh paragraph of the standard contract that the contract has been automatically renewed. In the event termination of the contract is unique in any respect, shall notify the Special Contracting Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the
in his file and remit the signed original to	a copy of the contract. The field representative will retain one signed copy purposes to be served by the field's retention of a completed contract is the availability of a valid contract which does not contain on its face the internal approval prescribed below. The special contract which does not contain on its face the internal approval prescribed below. The special contracting officer shall, on the face of the contract, indicate his approval and forward the original and two copies to the Special Contracting Officer for validation. The Special Contracting Officer shall remit the original and one copy to Vouchered Payroll which will serve as the final repository.  c. Termination, Expiration or Renewal of Contract - The Special Contracting Officer shall be notified by the sporoving officer when any of the aforementioned contracts are terminated or expire. In the absence of such notification the Special Contracting Officer shall assume in accordance with the seventh paragraph of the standard contract that the contract has been automatically renewed. In the event termination of the contract is unique in any respect, shall notify the Special Contracting Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	in his file and remit the signed original to Headquarters. One of the	25X1B availability of a valid contract which does not contain on its face the internal approval prescribed below. The approving officer shall, on the face of the contract, indicate his approval and forward the original and two copies to the Special Contracting Officer for validation. The Special Contracting Officer shall remit the original and one copy to Vouchered Payroll which will serve as the final repository.  c. Termination, Expiration or Renewal of Contract - The Special Contracting Officer shall be notified by the approving officer when any of the aforementioned contracts are terminated or expire. In the absence of such notification the Special Contracting Officer shall assume in accordance with the seventh paragraph of the standard contract that the contract has been automatically renewed. In the event termination of the contract is unique in any respect, shall notify the Special Contracting Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (i) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the		- approval prescribed below. Theapproving officer shall, on the face of the contract, indicate his approval and forward the original and two copies to the Special Contracting Officer for validation. The Special Contracting Officer shall remit the original and one copy to Vouchered Payroll which will serve as the final repository.  c. Termination, Expiration or Renewal of Contract - The Special Contracting Officer shall be notified by theapproving officer when 25X1B any of the aforementioned contracts are terminated or expire. In the absence of such notification the Special Contracting Officer shall assume in accordance with the seventh paragraph of the standard contract that the contract has been automatically renewed. In the event termination of the contract is unique in any respect,shall notify the Special Contracting Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	availability of a valid contract which does not contain on its face the internal of the contract, indicate his approval and forward the original and two copies to the Special Contracting Officer for validation. The Special Contracting Officer shall remit the original and one copy to Vouchered Payroll which will serve as the final repository.  c. Termination, Expiration or Renewal of Contract - The Special Contracting Officer shall be notified by theapproving officer when 25X1B any of the aforementioned contracts are terminated or expire. In the absence of such notification the Special Contracting Officer shall assume in accordance with the seventh paragraph of the standard contract that the contract has been automatically renewed. In the event termination of the contract is unique in any respect,shall notify the Special Contracting Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	approval prescribed below. The approving officer shall, on the face
officer shall remit the original and one copy to Vouchered Payroll which will serve as the final repository.  c. Termination, Expiration or Renewal of Contract - The Special Contracting Officer shall be notified by the approving officer when 25X1B any of the aforementioned contracts are terminated or expire. In the absence of such notification the Special Contracting Officer shall assume in accordance with the seventh paragraph of the standard contract that the contract has been automatically renewed. In the event termination of the contract is unique in any respect, shall notify the Special Contracting Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	of the contract, indicate his approval and forward the original and two copies
Officer shall remit the original and one copy to Vouchered Payroll which will serve as the final repository.  c. Termination, Expiration or Renewal of Contract - The Special Contracting Officer shall be notified by theapproving officer when 25X1B any of the aforementioned contracts are terminated or expire. In the absence of such notification the Special Contracting Officer shall assume in accordance with the seventh paragraph of the standard contract that the contract has been automatically renewed. In the event termination of the contract is unique in any respect,shall notify the Special Contracting Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	to the Special Contracting Officer for validation. The Special Contracting
c. Termination, Expiration or Renewal of Contract - The Special Contracting Officer shall be notified by the approving officer when 25X1B any of the aforementioned contracts are terminated or expire. In the absence of such notification the Special Contracting Officer shall assume in accordance with the seventh paragraph of the standard contract that the contract has been automatically renewed. In the event termination of the contract is unique in any respect, shall notify the Special Contracting Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	Officer shall remit the original and one copy to Vouchered Payroll which
c. Termination, Expiration or Renewal of Contract - The Special  Contracting Officer shall be notified by theapproving officer when 25X1B  any of the aforementioned contracts are terminated or expire. In the absence of such notification the Special Contracting Officer shall assume in accordance with the seventh paragraph of the standard contract that the contract has been automatically renewed. In the event termination of the contract is unique in any respect,shall notify the Special Contracting Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	will serve as the final repository.
Contracting Officer shall be notified by theapproving officer when any of the aforementioned contracts are terminated or expire. In the absence of such notification the Special Contracting Officer shall assume in accordance with the seventh paragraph of the standard contract that the contract has been automatically renewed. In the event termination of the contract is unique in any respect,shall notify the Special Contracting Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	·
Contracting Officer shall be notified by theapproving officer when any of the aforementioned contracts are terminated or expire. In the absence of such notification the Special Contracting Officer shall assume in accordance with the seventh paragraph of the standard contract that the contract has been automatically renewed. In the event termination of the contract is unique in any respect,shall notify the Special Contracting Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	c. Termination, Expiration or Renewal of Contract - The Special
any of the aforementioned contracts are terminated or expire. In the absence of such notification the Special Contracting Officer shall assume in accordance with the seventh paragraph of the standard contract that the contract has been automatically renewed. In the event termination of the contract is unique in any respect, shall notify the Special Contracting Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	Contracting Officer shall be notified by the approving officer when	25X1B absence of such notification the Special Contracting Officer shall assume in accordance with the seventh paragraph of the standard contract that the contract has been automatically renewed. In the event termination of the contract is unique in any respect, shall notify the Special Contracting Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	any of the aforementioned contracts are terminated or expire. In the
in accordance with the seventh paragraph of the standard contract that the contract has been automatically renewed. In the event termination of the contract is unique in any respect,shall notify the Special Contracting Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General = (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	absence of such notification the Special Contracting Officer shall assume contract has been automatically renewed. In the event termination of the contract is unique in any respect, shall notify the Special Contracting Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	in accordance with the seventh paragraph of the standard contract that the contract is unique in any respect, shall notify the Special Contracting Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	contract has been automatically renewed. In the event termination of the Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	contract is unique in any respect, shall notify the Special Contracting so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	Officer and advise him of the circumstances surrounding the termination which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.  d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	so that the Special Contracting Officer may advise as to the course of action
d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	which should be followed in order to protect the interests involved.
the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the
the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.  (2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	d. General - (1) No change shall be made in the standard contract without
(2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the	the prior approval of the Special Contracting Officer.
(2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the standard contract shall be referred to the Special Contracting Officer.
standard contract shall be referred to the Special Contracting Officer.	(2) Any questions involving the interpretation of the standard contract shall be referred to the Special Contracting Officer.

Approved For Release 2002/05/07: CIA-RDP62-00631R000300180028-1

Approved For Release 2002/05/07: CIA-RDP62-00631R000300180028-1

SECRET

25X1B	2. It is understood that the Office of the Comptroller have already and the program outlined above. On that b satisfactory toit is suggested that th in by the Office of General Counsel. As in this program from its inception, it is su	asis, if the above outline is  is memorandum be concurred  of OGC has been involvingested that you obtain his	25X1A 25X1B
	For the Director of Personnel	and the attached contract.
	Chie	SIGNED  f. Contract Personnel Division	25X1B
	Attachment
25X1B	CONCUR: Office of General Counsel	23 March 57
	CONCUR: Office of Operations	Date

AGREEMENT

Agreement made on the	day of	19
is hereby agreed between	ites Government, hereinafter referred to as the of individual engaged), hereinafter called	25X1B tasks during the period beg him by designated representations.	agrees to undertake such tasks as are assigned to attatives of the Government during said period of	()
of an independent contracto	or's services are to be rendered in the capacity or and, as such, he will not be an employee. The ot be entitled to any benefits normally incident to Government.	r e-
amount calculated at the ra		)
The exact fee to be paid her the Government in its sole	d this contract or any extension thereof is in for- reunder in any one month shall be determined by discretion and shall depend upon the requirement s achievements during the period.
FOURTH: As the Contraball be performed solely bassign any rights under this	ractor's services are regarded as unique, they by him, and he shall have no right to transfer or secontract.
Government property. The	time the Contractor shall assume the custody of Contractor agrees to execute whatever document the Government's interest in such property.	ats
SIXTH: This contract all hereinbefore set forth, whe advance notice in writing.	hall terminate before the expiration of the term ere either party gives the other fifteen (15) days!

Approved For Release 2002/05/07: CIA-RDP62-00631R000300180028-1

SEVENTH: Where, termination notice has not been given, then, subject to the availability of appropriations, this agreement shall automatically continue in full force and effect for an indefinite period.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

IN WITNESS HEREOF, the undersigned have duly executed this agreement the day and year first above written.

ATTEST:

	The second state of the se	-
WITNESS:	By Contracting Officer	25X1B
APPROVED: Office of General Cour	nsel Date	TORNS